8) Owing to the regrettable death of Mr. K.H. Ramaiya, the office of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies has fallen permanently vacant. The appointment has in the past been held either by an officer selected from the cadre of Deputy Commissioners or by an officer appointed specially as Registrar. When Mr. Ramaiya recently proceeded on leave the arrangement made was to appoint Mr. G.M. Mehkri, Deputy Commissioner, as acting Registrar of Co-operative Societies. I am of opinion that Mr. Mehkri may be appointed Registrar in the permanent vacancy, on his pay as Deputy Commissioner.

9) As in British India, it is desirable that an officer should not be allowed to hold the post of Registrar too long lest he becomes stale. Mr. Mehkri's appointment may be for three years.

10) Mr. K.H. Ramaiya's pay as Registrar was Rs.1,200 and this was personal to him. The pay of the post when held by an officer appointed directly as such is Rs.750-50-1,000. I have considered the alternative of appointing a Senior Assistant Commissioner as Registrar on the above pay, but I think that this arrangement would not be satisfactory; because the officer that may be selected would soon be disturbed from the post for being appointed as Deputy Commissioner.

11) It seems best therefore to appoint a Deputy Commissioner to the post and Mr. Mehkri's is the best selection that could be made.

Subject:—

16) Appointment of Mr. G.M. Mehkri, Deputy Commissioner, as Registrar of Coperative Societies in Mysore.

17) Owing to the regrettable death of Mr. K.H. Ramaiya, the office of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies has fallen permanently vacant. The appointment has in the past been held either by an officer selected from the cadre of Deputy Commissioners or by an officer appointed specially as Registrar. When Mr. Ramaiya recently proceeded on leave the arrangement made was to appoint Mr. G.M. Mehkri, Deputy Commissioner, as acting Registrar of Co-operative Soceities. I am of opinion that Mr. Mehkri may be appointed Registrar in the permanent vacancy on his pay as Deputy Commissioner.

18) As in British India, it is desirable that an officer should not be allowed to hold the post of Registrar too long lest he become stale. Mr. Mehkri's appointment may be for three years.

19) Mr. K.H. Ramaiya's pay as Registrar was Rs.1,200 and this was personal to him. The pay of the post when held by an officer appointed directly as such is Rs.750-50-1,000. The alternative of appointing a Senior Assistant Commissioner as Registrar on the above pay has been considered, but this arrangement is not likely to prove satisfactory because the officer that may be selected may soon be disturbed from the post for being appointed as Deputy Commissioner.

20) The proposal to appoint Mr. Mehkri as Registrar has been agreed to by the Dewan and the Second Member of Council, and I solicit His Highness' gracious sanction to the proposal.
